Course Objectives

Students enrolled in world history will learn about civilizations, phenomena, global patterns, causes and effects, and various points of view from the time period beginning at 1200 CE to the present as required by California Educational History Social Studies Standards. Those standards can be viewed here:

<https://www.cde.ca.gov/ci/hs/cf/documents/hssfchapter15.pdf>

Course Outline:

Semester 1

- Dark Ages
- Spread of religions: Christianity & Islam
- American civilizations: Maya, Inca, & Aztec
- Columbian Exchange
- Colonization
- Democratic revolutions
- Industrial Revolution

Semester 2

- Imperialism & its governments
- World War I causes, conduct, & consequences
- Interwar Period
- World War II causes, conduct, & consequences
- Post colonial Europe, Africa, & Asia
- Cold War

Academic Expectations

Ø Late work is unacceptable and will not be counted.

Ø Writing for Understanding – writing assignments, which ask you to synthesize information from more than one source, write persuasively in defense of a perspective, or respond to and analyze contemporary and historic events, will be assigned regularly.

Ø Attendance is vital. Should you miss class, it is the student's responsibility to find out what you've missed. You have the same number of days to turn in work as the number of days for which you had excused absences. Many activities and experiences cannot be recreated for an individual who misses class. Poor attendance will affect your grade.

Ø Lying, cheating, plagiarism or any form of dishonesty will not be tolerated and will result in a 0 on that assignment.

Behavior Expectations

§ Be on time, prepared to learn and work hard everyday

§ Everyone will be treated with respect at all times

§ Disrupting the learning environment in any way is unacceptable and there are consequences for it

§ Follow all school rules
