

SUMMER ASSIGNMENT 2020: DIRECTIONS HANDOUT
AP ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND COMPOSITION
CLASS OF 2022

WELCOME TO LANGUAGE & COMPOSITION!

www.Classroom.Google

Class Code: reux6hf

Note: This Google Classroom is shared by each teacher for this assignment. After school begins, your teacher will re-direct you to a new Google Classroom specific to their class.

MATERIALS Materials are posted on the Google Classroom. Download & print the following:

- Annotation Bookmark handout
- “Letter from Birmingham Jail” by Martin Luther King, Jr. (12 pages)
- “No Name Woman” by Maxine Hong Kingston (Chapter 1 from The Woman Warrior; 6 pages)
- “An Ancient City Emerges in a Remote Rain Forest” by Douglas Preston (4 pages)
- This Directions Handout, for your convenience.

DIRECTIONS:
READ,
ANNOTATE, REFLECT

- Read and re-read each of the selections carefully -- they are posted in the Classwork section of Google Classroom.
- Add thoughtful annotations (margin notes) to each of your summer readings. Your work should indicate a thorough exploration of each text, i.e. beginning, middle, end. Use the Annotation Bookmark on Google Classroom and review the Reading Study Skills (below) for assistance.

SUBMISSION
DETAILS

- You can choose to annotate the readings digitally, or to print them and write on them (then submit pictures of your work). On the first day of school, prepare to share your marked-up readings and be prepared to work with your summer project as part of class.

SUMMER ASSIGNMENT 2020: DIRECTIONS HANDOUT
AP ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND COMPOSITION
CLASS OF 2022

QUESTIONS?

- Ms. Reynaga: Jennifer-Reynaga@scusd.edu
- Mr. Gleason: Brian-Gleason@scusd.edu
- Mr. Valadez: Emmanuel-Valadez@scusd.edu

We hope you enjoy your summer of reading and reflection.

- Reading Study Skills from College Board
<https://apstudents.collegeboard.org/courses/ap-english-language-and-composition/reading-study-skills>
- Course Overview from College Board
<https://apstudents.collegeboard.org/courses/ap-english-language-and-composition>