Academic Expectations

- Late work is unacceptable and will not be counted.
- Writing for Understanding – writing assignments, which ask you to synthesize information from more than one source, write persuasively in defense of a perspective, or respond to and analyze contemporary and historic events, will be assigned regularly.
- Study Guides—Study guides will also be available on Infinite Campus as well as a physical copy will be passed out to each student one week prior to a unit quiz.
- Attendance is vital. Should you miss class, it is your responsibility to find out what you’ve missed. You have the same number of days to turn in work as the number of days for which you had excused absences. Many activities and experiences cannot be recreated for an individual who misses class. Poor attendance will affect your grade.
- Lying, cheating, plagiarism or any form of dishonesty will not be tolerated and will result in a 0 on that assignment and reported to school administration.

Behavior Expectations

- Be on time, prepared to learn and work hard everyday
- Everyone will be treated with respect at all times
- Disrupting the learning environment in any way is unacceptable and there are consequences for it
- Follow all school rules
