

UC for Everyone

You have what it takes to succeed at the best public university in the world.

Please join us for a series of special presentations by the University of California designed for you! Discover the benefits of a University of California education, learn more about the requirements for admission, and take advantage of this unique opportunity to connect directly with UC admissions representatives to find out your next steps in completing the application. Each event will address topics for a specific audience but visit our UC For Everyone website to see a full listing of programs this fall.
